

August 23, 2003

Dear Mill Creek,

I love how you treated us, I love the horses in there. Especially Brakon, Comanche, and Bows. I forgive Diamon. But I did have an adventure. Brakon is so, so cute. I wish I could keep him and Comanche, and Bows. I drew a picture of Brakon. I have a computer in my room. I have to share with my brother and sisters. But I don't mind. At night I went to my computer and put Mill Creek Horses. Then it said Mill Creek Equestrian Center. I click on it and I saw the name of all the school horses. I want to visit you but were kind of poor my dad only works. But I still have love. My birthday is August 24, 1992. Mom and dad aren't going to celebrate and there aren't going to give me no presents really. But I don't care. I just want the world without cares so we can have horses like in the old time. Please write back. If you don't remember me, I was the girl who fell off Diamond. I hope to go again to Mill Creek.

Your friend,
Jamie

Braken

